QUOTES

"We don't do manufactured outrage. We do one honest hour a day about the teams this community actually cares about."

– Larry Glover · On the show's editorial approach

"Radio taught me the conversation. Streaming lets the conversation talk back in real time — that's the whole reason we went live on YouTube and X."

– Larry Glover · On moving to a simulcast format

"I've been in the huddle, in the locker room, and in Rupp with the lights on. I try to bring listeners inside all of it."

– Kenny "Sky" Walker · On his role as co-host

"Big Blue Nation shows up every single morning. Our job is to be worth showing up for."

– Kenny "Sky" Walker · On the show's audience

HOST BIOGRAPHIES

LARRY GLOVER

HOST

Larry Glover has been one of the most trusted voices in Central Kentucky sports media for decades. A Hawesville, Kentucky native and University of Kentucky alumnus, he spent five seasons on the UK Radio Network and seven seasons as the Director of Broadcasting and primary play-by-play voice of the Lexington Legends, calling nearly 1,000 games and building a 26-affiliate network — the largest in Minor League Baseball history at the time. Named 2008 Kentucky Sportscaster of the Year, he went on to host Larry Glover Live on Lexington's News Talk 590 WVLK, leading evening drive, midday programming, and flagship postgame call-in shows for Kentucky Wildcats football and men's basketball. He now brings that veteran expertise to Larry Glover Live, streaming weekdays on YouTube and X.
